
2. Instant Generator

Instant generator is the process of producing source code from class model. In this chapter, you will learn how to make use of Instant Generator to generate source code from UML classes.

